

Figure 2. Map of conspiracy beliefs across countries. The conspiracy measure is an additive index of three conspiracy questions related to the origin and treatment of COVID-19. The index ranges from 0 (very certain is false) to 4 (very certain is true) and has a mean of 1.14.